

DWIGHT STIRRETT

President

Senior Investment Advisor

October 21, 2009

Dear Valued Client:

As President of Prodigy it has been my privilege to have been of service to you over the years. I now write to inform you that I have decided to retire from the investment business.

As a result, effective October 2009, Prodigy Wealth Management Corp. (Prodigy) entered into a definitive agreement with Canaccord Capital Corporation (Canaccord) whereby all client accounts will be transferred to Canaccord (without any cost to you) on or about November 2, 2009.

It has been a challenge for Prodigy to maintain the compliance infrastructure needed to satisfy applicable regulatory requirements and to bear the associated costs. Accordingly, transferring all client accounts to Canaccord is in the best interests of Prodigy's clients.

Karen Doyon, whom most of you will have dealt with at our firm, is also moving to Canaccord and will be able to continue to be of service to you there. Effective November 2, 2009, Karen will be located at the Kelowna office of Canaccord and can be contacted at (250) 712-1100. Karen will be working in a professional advisory team alongside Mark Van Hees, a senior Investment Advisor who has been with Canaccord for 5 years and an advisor for 14 years. Mark can be reached at (250) 979-1113.

The changes described above will place you in an excellent position to receive the quality of investment advice and service you require going forward. With Canaccord's top-notch administrative support, extensive research team, and comprehensive range of investment products, I am confident that you will benefit from first-rate customer service. You have, however, two options in relation to the account transfer, as follows:

OPTION 1 DO NOTHING If you wish to have your account(s) transferred from Prodigy to Canaccord, no action is required. In this case, your account will be transferred automatically. There are several important things you need to know about the transfer of your account(s), including:

Prodigy will be required to transfer your personal information to Canaccord, in order that Canaccord may continue to service your account(s). Following the transfer of your account(s), the operation of your account(s) and use of your personal information will be subject to Canaccord's Privacy Policy, a copy of which is enclosed;

Following the transfer of your account(s), your account(s) will be subject to Canaccord's Fee Schedule, a copy of which is enclosed; and Canaccord is required by regulation to ensure that your account(s) with Canaccord is/are updated in due course with appropriate Canaccord account documentation. In that regard, Karen Doyon or Mark Van Hees will be contacting you to obtain updated account documentation. During the period prior to obtaining Canaccord documents from you, the terms and conditions of your Prodigy account(s) will continue to be applicable to your account with Canaccord (including but not limited to the terms and conditions of your Prodigy account agreement(s), margin agreement(s), and/or guarantee agreement(s)).

OPTION 2 If for some reason you do not wish to have your account(s) transferred or have concerns regarding the transfer from Prodigy to Canaccord please give us a call so that we may address your concerns and / or discuss other options. If you do not wish to have your account(s) transferred from Prodigy to Canaccord and wish to move your account(s) to a different financial institution (without any cost to you), you should have your new financial institution provide Prodigy with transfer instructions as soon as possible. In any event, Prodigy should be in receipt of those transfer instructions no later than October 28, 2009.
